

Americold Participates in India Cold Chain Expo

ATLANTA, Georgia (November 17, 2010) – Americold’s Chief Operating Officer, Neal Rider, and Vice-President of European Business Development, Carlos Rodriguez, participated in the panel discussion and organizational meetings at the India Cold Chain Expo – ICE, in New Delhi, India on November 12 & 13, 2010. In various meetings with key stakeholders associated with the cold chain (producers, retailers, associations, real estate companies and service providers), Americold discussed industry trends, challenges, and possible areas of cooperation.

The India Cold Chain Expo offers a global opportunity to discuss products and services with the largest concentration of public refrigerated warehouses, refrigerated logistics, refrigerated construction and refrigerated transportation companies in India.

Based in Atlanta, GA, Americold is the global leader in temperature-controlled warehousing and logistics. The Company owns and operates specialized, cold storage warehouse properties in key distribution and regional centers. Americold’s warehouses are an integral part of the supply chain linking food producers, distributors and retailers who store products in temperature-controlled warehouses and use related services for frozen and perishable food products.

Americold has the leverage to deliver superior service, storing over 40 billion pounds of temperature-controlled product per year, and offers unparalleled experience in warehousing, as well as other value-added services, for the food industry.
